

Band to March

Parading in Monrovia through the downtown streets on the afternoon of May 1, will be the Torrance High School band. The event will be televised, according to Norma Rowe and Betty Hope, band members.

by Reed Parkin, and includes Ed Dietrich, Charles Hanna, George Powell and George Stevens.

Feller Case Mix-Up Discovered

Because of inexact reports made to the police, a story taken from the police files last week and reported as the near-suicide attempt of Harvey Fellers of 18544 Hawthorne blvd. must be altered substantially in view of the facts which have since come to light.

Fellers was treated at the hospital a week ago Saturday for poisoning. The accident, however, was not the result of a suicide attempt, it has been established, but rather due to a mix-up between two identical bottles of medicine, one of which was intended for external use only.

The actual facts of the case

Mrs. Turner Gets District P-TA Post

Mrs. A. C. Turner, prominent Torrance P-TA worker, was last Thursday named financial secretary of the First District, California Congress of Parent-Teacher Associations at a convention held in Pasadena.

A past president of both Torrance high school P-TA and the Torrance Council of P-TA's, Mrs. Turner will assume her new district post immediately, she revealed. She is parliamentarian of the local P-TA council.

She was established in an interview between Fellers, Police Chief Stroh, and a representative of the Press.

Chamber Names Airport Board

A watch-dog committee to investigate and act on problems relating to Torrance Municipal Airport was yesterday appointed by the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, according to Dale Isenberg, executive secretary.

The committee is chairmanned

PRIZE-WINNING PLAYWRIGHT—Carl Larsen, author of two original one-act plays presented last Saturday at the high school, accepts the Rosemary De Camp award, which is being presented by the donor. Larsen's plays, "Heaven's a Devilish Place" and "Crimson Dies the Sun," took honors in the event. Awards were made following the performances.

Trophies Awarded Three High School Playwrights

Carrying off trophies at last Saturday night's one-act play festival held at the Torrance High School auditorium were Janet Williamson and Janie Moffatt for their play entitled "The Unsuspected" and Carl Larsen for his two plays "Crimson Dies the Sun" and "Heaven's a Devilish Place."

The Rosemary DeCamp awards were presented by the Hollywood actress who is Mrs. John Shidder in private life, on behalf of the three judges: Dr. James H. Butler, professor of drama at USC; Miss DeCamp; and Mr. Jack L. Gariss, screenwriter for Paramount studios.

During the intermissions between plays, several vocal and instrumental soloists were heard.
